

Effective Apr 2020 to Aug 2021

- Members have the option to defer compliance of their CPL program requirements due to COVID-19 for one membership year.
- Option available on their next annual renewal; members may only select this deferral option once.

If you don't plan on deferring due to COVID-19, continue with your current CPL cycle.

Renewal months	If opting to defer CPL requirements due to COVID-19	When will I re-engage in my CPL?	When will I declare compliance with my CPL requirements?
April – August	You can defer CPL compliance for your 2019-2020 membership year on your renewal in 2020. OR your 2020-2021 membership year when renewing in 2021.	Renewal month of 2020 OR Renewal month of 2021	Renewal month 2021 OR Renewal month of 2022
Example: June renewal	You have two options for deferral; your past membership year or your next membership year. You decide to defer CPL for your 2020-2021 membership year.	You deferred your CPL requirements for 2020-2021, so you will re-engage with CPL in June 2021.	June 2022
September – December	You can defer CPL compliance for your 2019-2020 membership year on your renewal in 2020.	Renewal month of 2020	Renewal month of 2021
Example: September renewal	When filling in the CPL section of your renewal in September 2020, you will select: "I choose to defer my CPL Program requirements for this past membership year due to COVID-19".	You deferred your CPL requirements for 2019-2020, so you will re-engage with CPL in September 2020.	September 2021
January – March	You can defer CPL compliance for your 2020-2021 membership year on your next renewal in 2021.	Renewal month of 2021	Renewal month of 2022
Example: March renewal	When filling in the CPL section of your renewal in March 2021, you select: "I choose to defer my CPL Program requirements for this past membership year due to COVID-19."	You deferred your CPL requirements for 2020-2021, so you will re-engage with CPL in March 2021.	March 2022