

What do you know about your child's registered early childhood educator?

A registered early childhood educator (RECE) is a member of the College of Early Childhood Educators. RECEs are trained, qualified and accountable.

An RECE:

- Understands child development
- Attends to children's identified needs, interests and stages of development
- Plans programs for learning through play
- Maintains safe, healthy and stimulating environments
- Communicates regularly with parents

Online Public Register

You can look up the professionals working with your child on the College's online public register of members. Go to college-ece.ca.

Ethical and Professional Standards

You can read the Code of Ethics and Standards of Practice, which defines the professional skills, knowledge, practice and values expected of RECEs. It is available at college-ece.ca/resources.

Continuous Professional Learning

Did you know that continuous professional learning is an ethical and professional responsibility of RECEs? Learn more at college-ece.ca.

Have a concern?

RECEs are responsible for their practice, decision-making and behaviour. If you have a concern about an RECE's practice, you can contact the College.
