Examples of CPL Activities

cpl — continuous professional learning

You can participate in activities in many ways:

contributing   creating discussing   engaging   facilitating leading   reading   reflecting reviewing   sharing   supporting viewing   writing

- Professional networking
- Supporting other RECEs with CPL
- Communities of practice
- Podcasts and documentaries
- Sharing your learning with others
- Webinars, workshops, conferences or courses
- Experiential learning
- Professional practice discussions or staff meetings
- Articles, blogs, books, College resources, research etc.
- Writing resources, articles or blogs
- Independent or collaborative research
- Case study analysis and discussion
- Advocacy
- Observation, reflection and action
- Collaborative discussions with colleagues
- Policies and practices
- Job shadowing
- Reflective journaling
- Mentoring or coaching
- Engaging with the College of ECE

This graphic has a large circle in the centre describing how an individual can participate in learning activities. Small circles are branched out of the centred circle. Each of the small circles includes text naming different learning activities. You can choose any of the learning activities that best suit your needs, and you are not limited to these suggestions.